Frequently Asked Questions
Version 1.2 March 2014

Note: This is an information sheet only and NOT an insurance policy or insurance advice. Staff and students who seek advice on insurance should consult a licensed insurance professional.

Question 1
Who is covered by UNSW Expatriate Medical insurance?

Answer:

1. Employees of UNSW who are working outside of Australia continuously for a period of more than 12 months, or who are hired to exclusively be employed by UNSW overseas, are eligible for Expatriate Medical Insurance.

2. Approved students who are on international exchange for a period of greater than 12 months.

Question 2
What is covered under the medical benefits?

Answer: Doctors and/or hospitals and/or emergency dental treatment, emergency optical treatment, case management, emergency medical evacuation and emergency repatriation to the Insured Person’s home country.

Question 3
Do I need to fill out an application form for Expatriate Medical Insurance?

Answer: Yes, coverage is not automatic. Employees and students must apply for this insurance and be accepted by the insurer. At the time of your employment/exchange you must sign up for the Expatriate Medical Insurance. Staff must specify whether they require single or family type coverage. There is no family type coverage available for students.
Question 4
Do I need to pay for my Expatriate Medical insurance?

Answer: No

Question 5
Is there a time limit to filing a claim under the Expatriate Medical Program?

Answer: Yes, all new claims are required to be reported to the insurer within 30 days of incurring medical expenses.

The policy will only cover medical expenses incurred during the period of insurance, which is when the Insured is employed by UNSW. Coverage ceases when the insured leaves UNSW employment.

Question 6
In the event I want to make a claim, will I be responsible for any excess amounts?

Answer: Yes. The Insured is required to bear an excess payment of a total of $250 per year.

Question 7
Are there significant exclusions in the Expatriate Medical Program?

Answer: Yes. Significant limits and exclusions are found below:

- Pregnancy benefits have a 52-week qualifying period.
- Routine checkup is excluded.
- Injuries which result from participation or training in any professional sport are excluded.
- Cosmetic elective treatment, sterilization, reversal of sterilization and infertility treatment are excluded.
- Self-inflicted injury or suicide is excluded.
- Medical expenses relating to any sexually transmitted disease or HIV is excluded.
- Persons over 65 years old are excluded.
Question 8

Must I disclose pre-existing medical conditions to the insurer?

- Answer: Yes. The insurer requires that all applicants inform them of any pre-existing conditions at the time of the application. Pre-existing conditions have a 12 month waiting period before they are covered under the policy. All staff have a duty to disclose any pre-existing medical condition at the time of the application.

Question 9

What is International SOS (iSOS)?

Answer:
